TEAM NEWS

We are all very excited to announce that Katie Bynoth has now joined partnership with Annie Whitby. Katie has been an associate at Clifton Down Dental Practice since 2013.

Those of you that have already met Katie in surgery will know that she is extremely competent, kind, caring and with her calm personality she can make the most anxious of patients feel at ease. During her time at the Practice Katie has earned the respect from both patients and staff.

Annie, Katie and their excellent experienced support team are excited to continue delivering high quality, long lasting dental care for all the family at affordable prices.

I hope you all join us in wishing Annie and Katie a long and happy partnership together.

NEW TEAM MEMBER

Charlotte joined the practice in December 2023. She has been dental nursing since January 2019, gaining her qualifications in February 2021. She has continued her professional career obtaining her dental nurse conscious sedation qualification in September 2022. Charlotte has recently relocated to Bristol from Dorset. She is now busy renovating her new home with her partner. Charlotte loves being creative and enjoys embroidery and sewing in her spare time.
